THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

The good news of Christ's resurrection thus began its journey through history, like a long, calm and majestic wave, which no one and nothing will be able to stop until the end of time.

Everything, in fact, that exists and moves in the Church - sacraments, words, institutions - draws its strength from the resurrection of Christ.

It is the moment in which death was transformed into life and history into eschatology. It is the new creation.

The first evangelisation begins within the walls of the home.

To a young man who asked him what he had to do to be saved, Jesus one day replied: "Go, sell everything you have and give it to the poor [...], then come and follow me" (Mk 10:21).; to another young man, however, who wanted to leave everything and follow him, he did not say: 'Go, sell all you have and give to the poor [...], then come and follow me'. another young man, on the other hand, who wanted to leave everything and follow him, he did not forbid it, but said to him: 'Go home to your parents and tell them how the Lord has done you and how he has had mercy on you' (Mk 5:19).

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON Cf Psalm 65:1-2

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

FIRST READING Acts of the Apostles 3:13-15. 17-19A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter said to the people: 'You are Israelites, and it is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, who has glorified his servant Jesus, the same Jesus you handed over and then disowned in the presence of Pilate, after Pilate had decided to release him. It was you who accused the Holy One, the Just One, you who demanded the reprieve of a murderer while you killed the prince of life. God, however, raised him from the dead, and to that fact we are the witnesses. 'Now I know, brothers, that neither you nor your leaders had any idea what you were really doing; this was the way God carried out what he had foretold, when he said through all his prophets that his Christ would suffer. Now you must repent and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out.' The Word of the Lord. The Word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 4:2. 4. 7. 9. R. v.7(R.) Lord, let your face shine on us.

1. When I call, answer me, O God of justice; from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me! (R.)
2. It is the Lord who grants favours to those whom he loves; the Lord hears me whenever I call him. (R.)
3. 'What can bring us happiness?' many say. Lift up the light of your face on us, O Lord. (R.)
4. I will lie down in peace and sleep comes at once, for you alone, Lord, make me dwell in safety. (R.)

SECOND READING 1 John 2:1-5A reading from the first letter of St John

I am writing this, my children, to stop you sinning; but if anyone should sin, we have our advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, who is just; he is the sacrifice that takes our sins away, and not only ours, but the whole world's. We can be sure that we know God only by keeping his commandments. Anyone who says, 'I know him', and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, refusing to admit the truth. But when anyone does obey what he has said, God's love comes to perfection in him. The Word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION See Luke 24:32

Alleluia, alleluia! Lord Jesus, make your word plain to us: make our hearts burn with love when you speak. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Luke 24:35-48A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The disciples told their story of what had happened on the road and how they had recognised Jesus at the breaking of bread. They were still talking about all this when Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you!' In a state of alarm and fright, they thought they were seeing a ghost. But he said, 'Why are you so agitated, and why are these doubts rising in your hearts? Look at my hands and feet; yes, it is I indeed. Touch me and see for yourselves; a ghost has no flesh and bones as you can see I have.' And as he said this he showed them his hands and feet. Their joy was so great that they could not believe it, and they stood dumbfounded; so he said to them, 'Have you anything here to eat?' And they offered him a piece of grilled fish, which he took and ate before their eyes. Then he told them, 'This is what I meant when I said, while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses, in the Prophets and in the Psalms, has to be fulfilled.' He then opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, 'So you see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this. The Gospel of the Lord.

Surprised by Joy

How often have you had that momentary glimpse that God is real, that you're enveloped by God's love, only to forget it rather quickly?

Pray that the Lord will help you recapture and to experience the incredible joy experienced by the first disciples

It's that joy, the unshakable confidence in the risen Lord that can impel us to be missionary disciples
